

Challenges for EU Administrative Law by Brexit and beyond

Public Panel Discussion, 6 June 2019, 8 pm, HS 1015

Members of the Research Network on EU Administrative Law (ReNEUAL) will discuss challenges for EU Law caused by Brexit as well as possible legal frameworks for public and administrative cooperation needed in the post-Brexit period. This Public Panel Discussion is part of the ReNEUAL 10th Anniversary Conference 2019.

Prof. Paul Craig, Oxford University

Professor of English Law at St. John's College, Oxford; formerly: Worcester College, Oxford; Magdalen College, Oxford

Prof. Deirdre Curtin, European University Institute, Florence

Professor of European Law, Head of the Law Department, EUI and Director of the Centre for Judicial Cooperation, Robert Schuman Centre at the EUI; formerly: University of Amsterdam; Utrecht School of Governance

Prof. Jacques Ziller, Università di Pavia

Professor of EU Law, University of Pavia;
formerly: Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas; European Institute for Public Administration (EIPA) Maastricht; University Paris 1, Panthéon-Sorbonne;
European University Institute, Florence

Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg

Veranstalter: Prof. Dr. Jens-Peter Schneider

Lehrstuhl für Öffentliches Recht mit Europäischem Verwaltungs-, Informations- und Umweltrecht

Kontakt: <http://www.jura.uni-freiburg.de/de/institute/imi2> bzw. <http://www.reneual.eu/>